President's Message

Brothers and Sisters of the Lodge:

I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving. That is truly the day when the stage is set for the Christmas holidays.

We started by our Trim-A-Tree party where many of the members showed up to help us make the hall look festive and warm for the coming holiday events.

December is a time where most are preparing for the festive days of Christmas. Not only is it a very busy time of the year, with parties, shopping and preparing those wonderful meals that only Italians can make, but also it is a time to reflect on the events we experienced over the year; some good, some bad, the happy and the sad. No matter what they were, we must be grateful that we are still here and are able to share the holidays with those who mean something to us.

In the coming months there will be some significant changes in the structure of running the Lodge. All changes are necessary and will have a positive impact.

As we enter the New Year, we hope the membership will get more involved. You can start by paying your dues in a timely manner...remember, the dues are due by December 31, 2010. Somewhere in this newsletter, it will remind you of how much...

This is also the year for a new president. I will be stepping down in March and the new president will assume the helm. Following procedure, Andy Filangeri, the standing 1st Vice President, should be stepping up as the new leader of the Constantino Brumidi Lodge. In the coming weeks, he will be forming his council and may be asking some of you to get involved, just as every President has done in the past. Getting involved is more than attending extra meetings...it is giving advice and council as well as offering suggestions to raise money and cut costs to help the Lodge.

Think about how you can help, then go before the nominating board and tell them why you want to be an officer of the Lodge. Be prepared for an interesting session with the board....they ask some pretty good questions.

Over the past year, we have begun to honor the deceased members by hanging their photo in the up-stairs meeting room. We can thank brother Jack Bataglia for taking the time to re-furbish the frames and photos of the friends we lost. If we missed someone, please try and get us a suitable 5 x 7 photo so we can hang it along with the others.

On a very positive note, I trust everyone has been following the news about the latest Medal of Honor recipient, Staff Sgt Salvatore Giunta. This young man of Italian heritage, received his award for an act of bravery that very few could ever do. Along with this young man, two other men will be honored with the Medal of Honor, Air Force Chief Master Sgt. Richard Etchberger and Army Staff Sgt Robert J. Miller...unfortunately, their medals will be awarded posthumously. These are examples of the newest "greatest generation". God bless them and their comrades who are still in the fight.

Like some of you grandparents out there, Jan and I are busting with pride for our grandson, Joseph. Joe achieved the rank of Eagle Scout a few weeks ago. As many of you know, this is indeed an accomplishment.

Our calendar is filled with events for the coming month, so please make sure you are joining us for these festive events.

To our members recuperating from illness and surgery, we wish you a speedy and safe recovery.

Keep in your prayers, our men and women serving in the armed forces....these are difficult times and they need our prayers and support.

For all our members, Jan and I wish you a very joyous and blessed Christmas...and a safe and healthy New Year.

Respectfully,

John Vigiano

About Our Heritage . . . Beginning in late November, images of Santa Claus appear everywhere in the United States, while other countries have their own version of the jolly old gift giver; but not everyone knows his origin dates back to Italy and San Nicolo di Bari. San Nicolo's image was transformed into the American Santa Claus. He was the patron saint of children, merchants and sailors. San Nicolo was said to have saved the life of a sailor on a voyage to Egypt. A more yuletide tale tells of him helping a poor man who couldn't afford dowries for his three daughters and was considering prostitution. Hearing this San Nicolo used some of his inherited wealth to help.

Late at night he would throw bags of gold through an open window, often landing in stockings hanging from the fireplace to dry. He had only given enough for two of the daughters before the poor man became suspicious. San Nicolo then dropped enough for the third daughter down the chimney.

As the Santa Claus myth grew, the character became unique to American culture and began to resemble San Nicolo less and less. He is said to have died on December 6, 343 A.D. and was laid to rest in the cathedral of Myra for seven hundred years until the city was conquered by the Turks. Sailors then arrived in Myra and stole the bones, returning them to Bari. His bones produced clear liquid (manna), which was said to have a healing power.

San Nicolo di Bari left such a mark during his life that his deeds of kindness remain memorable through the centuries, regardless of how his image is portrayed.

Keep in Our Prayers

Please keep in our prayers all members who are sick: Paul Del Prete, Frank Ferrante, Fay Ferrante, Joe Commisso, Connie Busini, Pete Mastrocco, Peter Crescenti, Jim Caravella, Lucille Di Nardo, Marie Germano, Mike 'Doc' Ferrato, Paul Coniglio, Jay Ardolino, Barbara Mangano, Nino Barraco, Marie Lambroia, Joe Chester and Sal Piazzola.

Pray for the souls of the recently departed, especially Tom Lepore.

Also, pray for our men and women serving in the Armed Forces.

Madame's Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I hope everyone had a very Happy Thanksgiving with family, friends, good food while counting all of our Blessings.

Another Joyous Christmas Season is upon us, both at home, with our families and here at the Lodge.

Our monthly calendar is filled with many happenings, please check the dates and join us and make this Season a memorable one.

On Thursday, November 4th, we had our annual Mass for Deceased members and families of our Lodge. Father Lee offered a beautiful mass. Many of the families and friends of the deceased were in attendance. Thanks to all that did attend. Special Thank you to Rose Dispinseri, whose work all year as Health and Welfare Chairlady helped prepare for this mass.

Wednesday, November 10th, there was an Atlantic City bus trip to the Taj Mahal Casino. Many hours of work and planning goes into having a bus trip successful, along with the behind the scenes phone calls making arrangements so it all comes together. Anita Montuori has chaired these trips, and she has made them successful through her hard work and your support. Anita, many thanks for all your hard work, along with your co-chair Marge Valenti.

Friday, November 26th, we had our Trim-a-Tree night, and as usual, we had a fun social night as we all contributed to decorating our Hall for the Christmas Season. It is always so festive and beautiful to see and share with others who attend our functions at this time.

Sunday, December 12th, we are holding BREAKFAST WITH SANTA, from 9:30 to 12PM. All are invited, families, friends and relatives. There will be music, activities and gifts for the children, come out and join us. Also, can you guess who Santa is?

Rose Dispinseri is collecting Food For The Needy. Please contact Rose. Please remember the less fortunate.

Ladies dues are due no later than December 31st, 2010.

Ladies Nominating Board will take place on Tuesday, January 4th, and Wednesday, January 5th, from 7 to 9 pm. Anyone interested and have attended nine general meetings are eligible to go before the nominating committee.

Remember to check the LaVoce for our calendar of Events for December.

I am looking forward to seeing all of you at our Christmas and New Years Dances. These events are always spectacular.

As another year will soon come to an end and a new beginning will take place, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my Committee people and Chair people who have worked so hard for our Auxiliary and Lodge this past year. I thank each and every one of you for allowing us to have a successful 2010. Also, to all of our Bingo and Vegas Workers, without your constant support we would be nowhere. Thank you all and keep up the good work!!!

To my Lady Officers of the Executive Board, I Thank You personally for your unending dedication and commitment to the Auxiliary. No one knows better than I, how many hours and how much each and everyone of you personally gives of yourselves to make this Auxiliary the BEST and the STRONGEST.

Thank you for jumping in at a moments notice to support and be there for me. I am Proud to serve along side of you. I truly appreciate each and everyone of you.

In closing, on behalf of myself and my family, we would like to wish everyone a Very Happy and Healthy Holiday Season. MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR. Please keep the true meaning of Christmas in your heart.

Always keep in your prayers our sick and deceased members, who will always have a special place in our hearts.

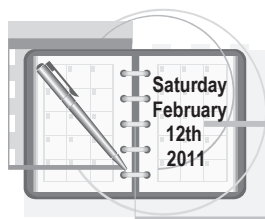

Let us Never Forget our Servicemen and Service Women around the World serving our country to keep us all safe and free.

May God Bless you all and God Bless America.

Buon Natale!

*Fraternally,
President Diana*

Mangano Funeral Home has kicked-off their toy drive to benefit the Gerald J. Ryan Outreach Center, in Wyandanch. New toys, not gift-wrapped, can be brought to Mangano Funeral Home, 1701 Deer Park Avenue, from November 15th to December 13th, seven days a week, from noon to 8 p.m. Everyone who donates a new, unwrapped toy will receive a $5 gift card to Family Florist (limit one per family).

Editorial

December . . . Is the time of gift giving & spiritual renewal.

Frost covered lawns fill with iridescent angels, snowmen, animated deer and assorted airblown inflatables. Rope lights, mini-icicles and wreaths decorate doors, windows and eaves. Letters to Santa. Toys for Tots. Packages for troops overseas.

Preparation . . . Anticipation
 (first stanza of a Christmas poem by your editor)

It seems this is where it begins each year, even before Thanksgiving, for some; and when you think there may be a break in between, the media bombards households with their Black Friday campaign.

Suddenly we become wrapped up in the helter skelter of this seasonal way-of-the-day, trying to carve out a chunk of time while the sand in our hour glass seems to reside consistently at the bottom.

Throughout this time, market forces dominate our life and the religious significance of spiritual renewal becomes reduced.

In an attempt to emphasize Christmas as the worship of Christ rather than materialism and gift giving, St. Francis of Assisi created the first live nativity (1223) at Greccio, in Italy.

The original name for Christmas (Latin) was Festum Navitatis Domini Nostri Jesus Christi (The Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ); later shortened to Dies Natalis Domini (The Birth of Our Lord).

Nobody wants to take away gift sharing with our loved ones, but lest not forget to stir in the spirit of this holiday. Maybe greet people with a . . . Merry Christmas, and not be concerned with being politically correct.

To all our family of Brothers & Sisters at the Lodge, Sabrina & I wish you a Merry Christmas . . . with hope that the new year brings us all closer together.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot?"
 Keep your eye on the Italian flag!

DUES ARE DUE BY DECEMBER 31ST

LODGE MEMBERS

With the holiday season upon us and the New Year fast approaching, this is a reminder that your dues for 2011 will be accepted at the next two meetings.

Dues are due on or before December 31st.

For the Lodge members, your dues are $75 ($45 for members age 62 and up, in good standing for five years).

Pay before December 31st to avoid being in arrears (loss of voting privileges and "good standing" status; which means you do not get the discount).

LADIES AUXILIARY MEMBERS

Your dues are still $25 but they are also due on or before December 31st.
See your Financial Secretary.

NOMINATING BOARD:

SAVE THE DATE: SATURDAY 2/26/2011~ ATTENTION "DANCING WITH THE STARS" FANS – The Brumidi Lodge and DJ

Ray will host a Ballroom Dance Competition on Saturday February 26th, 2011 from 7:30 – Midnight. We will invite ballroom dancers from throughout the Island to enter the competition who will be scored by three professional teachers (judges). There will be 2 types of admissions: 1) To enter the dance competition; and 2) general audience. We plan on giving away $1,000 in prizes and trophies to the winners. Contestants will be judged on 6 dance styles: Cha Cha, Hustle, Argentine Tango, Waltz, West Coast Swing, and Salsa. In addition to a buffet, coffee, and dessert, there will be Open Dancing during various intermissions for the audience. It will certainly be a fun event, and if you love dancing this is an event that you do not want to miss. Dancer Pre-Registration & Audience Reservation are required. More details and pricing will follow here and at our web site www.sonsofitaly.li.com

This event is being run by Sal Favaro, Bob Cava & Nina Tartaro, with DJ Ray / Rose.
