President's Message

Brothers and Sisters:

The summer is quickly rolling along and August is now upon us. I hope everyone is enjoying the warm temperatures and the bright sunny days. During the month of August you often hear the expression, "the dog days of summer." Did you ever wonder where that expression came from?

When it comes to "the dog days"- it all has to do with the stars. The expression comes from the ancient belief that the star, Sirius, also known as the "Dog Star" was somehow responsible for the hot weather and so was born the "dog days" expression. A little bit of trivia for you to think about!

On to a sadder note, in this world there are two types of people; the "Good" and the "Not so Good." The "not so good" often try to take advantage of "the good." Unfortunately, the Brumidi Lodge got involved with "the not so good." My job as President of this lodge is to make sure that "the good" was not totally taken advantage of. As a result, the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel was not able to take place! I know that this was a big disappointment to everyone, including myself, but it was necessary to uphold and insure the integrity of the lodge. If anyone needs a further explanation, feel free to call me or stop by the office, and I will explain the entire unfortunate situation.

Even though there wasn't a feast, I wanted to make sure we continued the tradition of having a mass to honor Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The mass was held on July 22nd at Sts. Cyril and Methodius Church. The mass seemed a little more special this year because the statue that we proudly marched down the aisle of the church, was brand new. Antonia Masi and Lucille DiNardo, again this year, made sure Our Lady was as beautiful as ever, for her inaugural trip down the church aisle. She was placed on the altar, proudly on display, for all to see. Thank you ladies, Our Lady looked beautiful!

Father Lee was kind enough to bless our beautiful statue, and his homily fit so perfectly with what happened to our lodge, this past week, that I felt like it put the whole situation in perspective.

When I thanked Father Lee at the end of mass and he asked about our feast, he said to me, "We don't know why things happen, but trust me, it's all in God's Hands." What a perfect sentiment!

I would also like to thank everyone who attended the mass, in honor and support of Our Lady and the Brumidi Lodge. After the mass, we went back to the lodge for a little collation of dessert and coffee and fellowship with our Brumidi brothers and sisters. This was a very nice ending to an enjoyable afternoon. Thank you to Sal Picone for setting up our dessert table.

I would like to let the members know that we are now in the process of updating our current fire alarm system. The Town of Babylon has informed us of new state laws, that require us to do this upgrade. The project will take place over the next eight to ten months. New emergency lighting has already been placed on the second floor of our building. This was not part of the alarm system, but it was suggested that the lighting also should be updated. I want to thank Paul Carosotto and Vinny DiGirolamo for installing the new lighting. I hope that when the project is completed, we never have to use it! But it is important to have the peace of mind, knowing that we are continuing, as always, to keep our building safe for our members, family, friends and guests.

As you read this LaVoce you can't help but notice that the month of August has five terrific events coming up:

Vigiano Brothers Golf Outing.... August 9th....Thom Lorito Senior Picnic.... August 15th.....Diamante's and Mangano District One Queen's Pageant...August 19th...see President Andy for info if interested.

Military Bridge...August 23rd....Rose Dispinseri and Pam Gagliano Luau...August 25th...Anita Montuori and Jan Vigiano

I hope to see you at one or perhaps even all of these events!

God Bless all of you and I hope everyone continues to have a healthy and relaxing summer!

Insieme come una famiglia,

President Andy

About Our Heritage . . . Nicola Antonio Porpora (August 17, 1686 - March 3, 1768) Naples, Italy

Nicola Porpora was a celebrated Neapolitan composer of Baroque operas and a singing teacher. Porpora's ability to set the Italian language to music was internationally acknowledged during his lifetime. He was a rival of Handel and a teacher of Haydn. Porpora graduated from the music conservatory Poveri di Gesu Cristo of his native city, where the civic opera scene was dominated by Alessandro Scarlatti. His first opera, Agrippina, was successfully performed at the Neapolitan court in 1708. His second, Berenice, was performed at Rome. In his long career, he followed these with many other operas, supported as maestro di cappella in households of aristocratic patrons. However, composing operas alone had not yet made a viable career. His enduring fame rested chiefly upon his unequalled power of teaching singing. At the Neapolitan Conservatorio di Sanr'Onofrio and with the Poveri di Gesu Cristo he trained Farinelli, Caffarelli, Salimbeni and other celebrated vocalists, during the period 1715 - 1721. In 1720 and 1721 he wrote two serenades to librettos by a gifted young poet, Metastasio, the beginning of a long, though interrupted collaboration. In 1722, his operatic successes encouraged him to lay down his conservatory commitments. His later career became a series of misfortunes.

A good linguist, who was admired for the idiomatic fluency of his recitatives, and a man of considerable literary culture, Nicco Porpora was also celebrated for his conversational wit. Besides some four dozen operas, there are oratorios, solo cantatas with keyboard accompaniment, motets and vocal serenades.

Among his larger works, his 1720 opera Orlando, one mass, his Venetian Vespers and the serenata Arianna in Nasso (1733) have been recorded.
