President's Message

Brothers and Sisters:

I greet you this month with a quote I've learned to remember . . . "The only thing that is constant is change" ~ Heraclitus (Greek Philosopher).

And so, traveling along that path, I applaud the efforts of Anita Montuori, Marge Valenti and their committee – Bringing us Back to the 50's. This event brought the level of attendance we've not seen for a while. It was like crazy man! Chicks and cats were decked out for the times and nobody wanted to split.

This trend is planned to continue in August as the men present . . . Alive Again, a film screening, Q&A and live performance with Theresa Sareo; along with dinner. Many of you will remember Theresa's spell-binding performance at our Hope for the Warriors event. And, still in planning stages, is a tag sale, in September or October, to raise funds for the Lodge.

Our Ladies will also continue on this 'change' path with a Murder Mystery in August; and warm the cockles of your heart with a Soup Night in October. And, don't forget to check the calendar for repeat performances of our more familiar, successful events.

In June, there was change again with the passing of the queen's crown. Congratulations to our new reigning Queen Alyssa Soldano; and to proud parents and members Carmine and Susan.

Thank you to the exquisite Taylor Rose for representing the Brumidi Lodge with dignity throughout her reign. One thing that may change in process, but not priority, is MEMBERSHIP. Not only do we want to expand the Brumidi family, but also promote the growth of our Italian tree of life. I know you're with me on this one, so, let's find some prospects, bring them in, guide them and retain them.

Come down and join us for Bingo on Mondays and Vegas on scheduled Fridays. Come to help or come to play.

Keep in mind one of the expense reduction changes was the printing and mailing of La Voce. After this first double issue (JUL/AUG), your next newsletter (SEP/OCT) will arrive in-home, early September.

In closing, I ask that we all remember that our Lodge is based on brotherhood and while we find ourselves additionally managing a Catering business amidst struggling economic times, let's not forget that 'bond-between-brothers' as we step forward and assess change. Some of the officers have heard me say, "Without that business, we still have a Lodge; without the Lodge, we have nothing."

"Keep in your prayers our Brothers & Sisters who are sick; our deceased members; and service men & women serving worldwide.

God Bless,
President, Bob

2013 NYS Convention

Cappozzelli Di Angnelli

About Our Heritage . . . Giosue Alessandro Giuseppe Carducci July 1835 - February 1907

Giosue Carducci was an Italian poet and teacher. He was very influential and regarded as the official national poet of modern Italy. He was born in Valdicastello, a small town in the Province of Lucca, in the northwest corner of Tuscany.

Carducci, the son of a republican country doctor spent his childhood in the wild Maremma region of southern Tuscany. He studied at the University of Pisa where he became fascinated with the restrained style of Greek and Roman antiquity, and his work reflects that style, often using classical meters of the Latin poets Horace and Virgil. Carducci translated Book 9 of Homer's Iliad into Italian. He graduated in 1856 and began teaching school. The following year he published his first collection of poems, Rime, influenced by a group of young men determined to overthrow the prevailing Romanticism and return to classical models.

These were difficult years for Carducci; his father died and his brother committed suicide.

In 1860 he became professor of Italian literature at Bologna. Carducci demonstrated both his great power as a poet and the strength of his republican, anticlerical feeling in his hymn to Satan, "Inno a Satana" (1863) and Giambi ed epode, ("Iambics and Epodes" 1867–1869), inspired mostly by contemporary politics. Rime nuove (The New Lyrics) and Odi barabare (The Barbarian odes) contain the best of Carducci's poetry; the evocations of the Maremma landscape and the memories of childhood; the lament for the loss of his only son; the representation of great historic events; and the ambitious attempts to recall the glory of Roman history and the pagan happiness of classical civilization.

In 1906, he became the first Italian to win the Nobel Prize in Literature. He died in Bologna . . . an atheist.

Madame's Message

Dear Sisters and Brothers,
I'd like to start this month's message by conveying my gratitude to the Ladies Auxiliary for funding my trip to the OSIA Convention. I observed several sessions and found it to be a rewarding experience. Congrats to President Bob for winning 1st Place in District One in the Membership Committee Essay Contest.

On June 8th we went 'Back to the 50's' with a Dinner/Dance that was spectacular! Thank you Anita, Marge, Janet, Gale and Jan, President Bob, Decorating Dan, Frank, Ed and John, and of course, Sal for all that you do for us. The fabulous committee along with the music set the tone for a fun night of dancing, singing, reminiscing, and of course, great food.

On June 25th we crowned our new Miss Constantino Brumidi Queen, Alyssa Soldano, daughter of Carmine and Sue. I look forward to getting to know this young lady as she represents our Lodge at various internal and State events including the District One Queens Pageant on August 18. Congrats to Alyssa and her family. I also extend sincere thanks to outgoing Queen Taylor Rose for representing our lodge beautifully.

The Mohegan Sun Casino Bus trip is to be held on June 27; thank you Anita Montuori and Marge Valenti for chairing. Let's be sure to remember the Golf Outing scheduled for July 11, the Mass for our Lady of Mount Carmel on July 14 and the Senior Picnic scheduled for August 15. We also have Military Bridge on August 22; thank you to Rose Dispinseri and Pam Gagliano for Chairing this event once again. For those considering joining in but are not familiar with the game, it is not the traditional Bridge card game that you may know of, but rather a fun and easy-to-learn card game. There's not only the game where each person wins something, but there's also cake, coffee, snacks and a few laughs; please consider joining us.

We have two new events planned in the upcoming months. First, a Murder/Mystery dinner and live show with the Wedding theme, Till Death Do Us Part, that is scheduled for August 10th looks to be both entertaining and intriguing. As the night progresses, secrets will be revealed, motives exposed and your sleuthing skills will be put to the test. Bring your best detective skills and of course your appetite! The chairs are Sue Soldano and PP Diana Grauer. Another new event for us here at Brumidi will be a Soup Night. Several members will cook one of their specialty soups for your enjoyment and for their bragging rights. Laura Capano and Jan Vigiano will be Chairing this event and from what has been discussed so far, this is a night not to be missed! Our Fashion Show will be held on September 19 and will be chaired by PP Lucille DiNardo, Antionette Masi and Janet Dickert. The fashions will be elegant, spectacular and maybe even glittery! If you have an item that you would like to donate as a raffle basket, please see one of the committee members.

In the planning stages is a Testimonial Dinner and Dance honoring IPP Andy Filangeri and Ladies Auxiliary IPP Debra Prestano scheduled for Sunday, November 24th; more details to follow in the upcoming months.

I would like to welcome two new members to the Auxiliary who were installed in May. They are Emily Rannazzisi and Toni Farina. Welcome ladies, I look forward to working with both of you!

As stated last month, this newsletter will now be issued every other month; look for your next issue early September. Reminder, if you are looking for current information you can go to our website: sonsofitalyli.com.

I encourage you to attend as many events as you can, join a committee, submit ideas for fundraising, come down for a fun night of Vegas or Bingo (whether you play or work). We really need, and look forward to, your participation and in return you will most likely find yourself having a rewarding experience. Thank you to those of you who work the various events; your efforts are very much appreciated. Happy Summer, everyone!
