President's Message

Brothers and Sisters:

As I start my second year as your president, I am invigorated by the energy I see as a result of our now being a coed lodge. Your new council is ready and willing to serve the lodge and bring us forward in 2015 and beyond.

I want to thank all the outgoing officers for their dedication and hard work this past year. From record keeping, paying the weekly bills, keeping up with membership, working in the kitchen, tending bar, and keeping the building in shape – my thanks to one and all. To the incoming officers – you have some big shoes to fill and I am confident the dedication and work ethic will continue as we all strive to keep Brumidi as the premier lodge it is in The Order Sons of Italy in America.

I also want to take this opportunity to give a special thanks to my House Chairman Sal Picone. Sal is at the lodge practically every day and is there for any rentals and catered events we may have. From coordinating and scheduling catering staff, supervising our maintenance staff, ordering and shopping for food for all our events (both in house and catered) and responding to building emergencies as they occur (this is an old building showing its age) – Sal can always be counted on. This dedication is second to none and most of us do not realize the daily and continuous commitment that goes into keeping this building running. I saw this first hand during my first term as president – Sal, please accept my heartfelt thanks.

I also want to congratulate Ladies Auxiliary President Sabrina Savino and the Ladies Council for all their hard work. I enjoyed working with them in 2014 and look forward to working with my Sisters as members and officers of the Lodge as we go forward.

The past year saw big changes at Brumidi as we went from a men's lodge to a coed lodge. My thanks to all the Brothers and Sisters who supported this effort and helped bring it to fruition. The results of this effort are evident in the make-up of the new council of officers. Thank you Sisters for stepping forward to do the work of the Order and the Lodge.

As we move forward, we cannot forget the contributions made by the Ladies Auxiliary – truly the backbone of our Lodge. My thanks to all the past members of the Auxiliary and all the past presidents and officers who gave their time and commitment to the support of the Lodge.

We had many lodge events these past few months that were enjoyed by all the members who came down. One event stands out that epitomizes what the Lodge and the Order Sons of Italy is all about – that was the Celebration of Life we hosted for the Cooley's Anemia poster child Zayna who passed away suddenly in early January. Through the extraordinary efforts of our members, we were able to set up and feed over 300 people on January 11 on just 3 days' notice. My thanks go out to all the members who stepped up and helped out that day. In the day to day running of the lodge and trying to maintain the building we tend to forget the true meaning of being in OSIA. This event brought our members together for a truly worthy endeavor. We should all be proud to be members of Brumidi and of OSIA. As your president, I received and accepted on behalf of all Brumidi brothers and sisters the heartfelt thanks from the State President for a job well done and one the entire Order is proud of. Again – my thanks to all who stepped up on such short notice.

Interviews for nominations for Director are coming up. All Brothers and Sisters who are members in good standing as of March 2015 can seek a position. This is our lodge and we need the support and experience of all the members.

As listed in this issue, there are many committee chair positions open. Any Brother or Sister interested in chairing a committee in 2015 or continuing in their current chair position should call me or email me. I will be filling these positions in March and April. I encourage everyone to consider getting involved and chairing a committee that interests you. It is a great way to meet members both here in our lodge as well as in other lodges.

Questions or concerns? Email me or call my cell phone. This is our Lodge and I want to keep communications and the flow of information open.

As always, keep in your prayers all our sick Brothers and sisters; our deceased members; and all our service people protecting our shores.

God Bless,

President Ciro

About Our Heritage . . . "When you see a fork in the road, take it!" ~ Yogi Berra

It's time for Major League pitchers & catchers to arrive at Spring training and almost time for me to assess if I'm ready to field the game another year. My fondest memories of the game were my teacher and my team. My teacher was my father, strong-willed to make me a switch-hitter; and he succeeded. Our team was the NY Yankees. In our family there was no other team; and Yogi was a household favorite.

Lawrence Peter Berra was born in 1925, in a primarily Italian neighborhood of St. Louis called 'The Hill', to Italian immigrants Pietro & Paolina Berra.

Yogi began playing baseball, locally, in American Legion leagues, where he learned the basics of catching, while playing infield and outfield positions. It was there he was given his nickname, from his friend Bobby Hofman, who said he resembled a Hindu yogi whenever he would sit, with arms & legs crossed, waiting to bat or looking sad after losing a game.

Berra served in the U.S. Navy, during WWII, during the D-Day invasion. As a major league player, he became the master of hitting poor pitches. In 1972, he became the manager of the NY Mets, after the sudden death of Gil Hodges. That same year, he was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame (as a Yankee) and his number (8) was retired.

Berra remains involved in causes related to his Italian American heritage, a long time supporter of the National Italian American Foundation (NIAF), receiver of the NIAF Special Achievement Award for Sports.

"I never said most of the things I said." ~ Yogi Berra
