President's Message

Brothers and Sisters:

LIBERTY ~ EQUALITY ~ FRATERNITY

These are the founding principles of our Order in OSIA. But, I would like to look particularly at 'Fraternity' as a building block for our not only the Order, but for our Lodge.

What is Fraternity? Why would someone join an Order or a Lodge?

I'll tell you why I joined the Lodge. It was to be close with people of Italian decent, to help me not forget the Culture, Heritage and Family that was instilled in me from my Great Grandparents and Grandparents, to share and make new memories not only with my family, but with new friends (who I can call family) and make sure that our Culture and Heritage is not lost. So that future generations will know who they are and where they came from. Did I need to join a Lodge to do this? Probably not! But, being around others with common goals and interests, sharing in experiences, learning and growing TOGETHER, building something to pass on to the next generation, isn't that a beautiful and inspiring concept? That it is not about 'you or I', it is not about what 'you or I want or need', it is about ALL of 'us' doing it TOGETHER!

"Great perils have this beauty, that they bring to light the fraternity of strangers." ~ Victor Hugo

"Brotherhood (Sisterhood) is not just a Bible word. Out of comradeship can come and will come the happy life for all." ~ Haywood Brown

Every organization has the same sort of structure; "the handful of members that do most of the work", "the handful of members that criticize and criticize and tell others how to do things (but will not help out), "members that say 'I put in my time and now I do not have to do anything'", "members who forget that this is a Lodge and want things done their way and not for the good of the others" and "members who just want to be members in good standing". But in the end aren't we ALL members of the same Lodge? Is it possible that we have the same goal but show it differently, even though it may look like something else?

I often hear about members holding onto a grudge or gripe about something someone did or said and how they cannot let go of it. Again, isn't being part of the Order and/or the Lodge about the Greater Good and not about 'you or I' is it not about the 'us'?

Pope Francis said it so beautifully ~ "We must move forward together, as one, in a renewed spirit of fraternity and solidarity, cooperating generously for the common good."

My wish for you, Brothers and Sisters is that as we enter this Fall Season, you see ALL the beauty that nature has in store for us and if you have held any issues/grudges/gripes and you are able to shed them like the tree sheds her leaves in preparation for winter. "Autumn paints in colors that summer has never seen." ~ Unknown.

See you ALL at the next General Meeting, Lodge function/event or reach out to me, if you wish to talk, have a question or concern.

ALL LIVES MATTER! YOURS. MINE. OURS.

Always, keep in your prayers our Brothers and Sisters who are sick; our deceased members; and ALL the Service men and women that protect and keep us safe each and every day here and abroad.

God Bless,
In Unity,

Daniel

Saving Our Lady of Loreto Church

An art treasure for its neighborhood, Our Lady of Loreto was built with a deliberate intent to exemplify the architectural and artistic traditions of Italy. It reflects the high caliber of workmanship available at the time within its Italian immigrant community in the New York/New Jersey region, and contains certain absolutely unique construction and sculptural elements.

Please sign the petition to have the church landmarked. Without a historical landmark designation Our Lady of Loreto church will be demolished.

Lodge 2016 Survey Results

Overall, respondents are highly satisfied with the lodge, would recommend membership and currently attend meetings.

Dances still remain the most popular events, but suggestions have been made for more social nights, including trivia, karaoke, card nights, book club, and paint night. They'd also like to see more one-day outings, such as bus trips to casinos and Arthur Avenue. Most important criteria for attending functions include theme, cost, timeframe, and convenient location. Suggestions for improving events/functions are having more socials, spread out functions so that there aren't too many in one month. Reminder most lodge functions are open to non-members.

Respondents are extremely satisfied with La Voce and read it regularly. Additional features suggested include a Guess Who/Baby Pictures section, personal stories, more articles about Italian culture and more of the general membership in the picture section. Readers still prefer to receive La Voce via mail and generally don't access the Lodge's website or Facebook.

There is a consensus that we need to attract younger members. New members should be assigned a "mentor" to help them acclimate to the lodge, get involved and attend functions. Suggestions to improve the membership experience are increased access to upstairs, opening the bar on non-event nights and increased social nights.

Improvements to the monthly meetings include shortening the meeting, less business topics, and more time to socialize. Most respondents would prefer a 7 pm start time for meetings and events. Virtually all respondents are receiving phone tree messages, and no respondents require transportation.

Brumidi Catering received high marks and members would recommend to non-members as well as use for their own personal events. Suggestions to improve the catering business would be using social media to advertise, brightening the lobby, new paint, cleaning the drapes and doing more preventative building maintenance.

Thank you to those who took the time to complete the survey. A greater response rate to the survey in the future would ensure more of your opinions and views are voiced.
