Come gather to decorate
our Hall with the spirit of Christmas.

President's Message

Brothers and Sisters,

It is hard to believe that the Holiday season is already upon us. Thanksgiving is one of my favorite days of the year because it reminds us to give thanks and to count our blessings. Suddenly, so many things become trivial when we realize how blessed and lucky we are. With that in mind, I cannot thank you all enough for your thoughts and prayers during the two major surgeries I went through these past few months. It will be a long road to recovery. My recovery started on September 27th, when I walked through the front door of the Brumidi Lodge that evening for the Fall Fashion show. It was only five days after my release from the hospital with multiple staples and stitches in my head. My wife Susan was not happy I was out and about, but I felt I needed to see my brothers and sisters of our lodge. I had no idea what an impact that evening would have on me. No one was expecting me to attend and as I walked through the front double glass doors and appeared in the lobby, it is hard to describe what took place. The women diligently working and checking in guests looked up and saw me with disbelief. I looked back with a gracious smile. There was a short pause, an exchange of short conversation, and then my sisters abruptly stopped what they were doing, stood up on their feet and gave me a standing ovation. I cannot put in words the warm thankful and loving feeling that radiated through me. This made a permanent imprint on a part of my heart and I will forever be thankful to them for the moment. This memory is unforgettable, remaining ever vivid and heartwarming!

October was another busy month. Thank you to the members that participated in the Long Island Columbus Day parade in Huntington. We had two parade cars, three Marshalls, and our own Poet Laureate Bob Savino, wrote and read a poem during the opening ceremony! Congratulations Bob. During the October meeting we celebrated Italian Heritage Month and hosted various vendors from our community. Everyone enjoyed the food, and the great gelato. I ask that you continue to patronize these friends of our lodge. At the meeting we also welcomed and installed three new members, Christine and Edward Castellazzo, & John Massey. We look forward to sharing our membership with you. On October 30th, we all took a break from the stress of all our continuous hard work and enjoyed the minute by minute comedy of Dudley Moore in the Movie Arthur. Our Halloween party as always was a great success and was enjoyed by all. The creativity in costumes is always amazing and entertaining each year. Thank you to Daniel Calise and Karen Lorito for another job well done.

As we progress into the last two months of the year, I implore you to keep a copy of the LaVoce handy at all times to keep track of all the events that will be taking place at our lodge. Remember to view our Lodge website also. Soup Night, Trim-A Tree, Senior Christmas Party, Breakfast with Santa, Officers Christmas Party and the Lodge Member Christmas party will be here before you know it.

Our New Year's Eve Gala will be sold out soon, so make your reservations now.

I would like to thank IPP Daniel Calise for his hard work with renovating our bar. The bar looks beautiful and we can enjoy it at events for many years to come. I would also like to thank Brother Dominick Benvenuto for donating the beautiful mahogany sign "Benvenuto" meaning "Welcome" to our newly renovated bar. The sign was mounted in the middle of October and adds a warm feeling to a cozy place. Last but not least thank you to 1st Vice-President Sabrina for stepping up to the plate when I needed her most and to Frank Montuori, Dan Cicale and the kitchen crew for all your thankless hard work and dedication.

As we enter the New Year, we will be working together on making renovations and improvements to our hall and our second floor for member enjoyment. Anyone interested in making suggestions or helping out in anyway, please contact myself or Daniel Calise.

Finally, yes, every time I write my column there is a finally. I again want to personally thank each and every one of you for your continued thoughts and prayers during my recovery. I feel as though my family grew ten times its size these last few months and I cherish the very thought of it. May the spirit of Christmas warm your home as well as your heart with health, love, peace, and friendship. Enjoy all the time with your family and May God continue to Bless all of you this Holiday Season.

Faternally,

Carmine

"Christmas is forever, not for just one day..... for loving, sharing, giving are not to be put away like bells, lights, and tinsel in some box upon a shelf. The good you do for others is good you do for yourself. When you give a gift at Christmas and see the smile of the people you love reflected in their faces, that's magical. It is not about spending a lot of money or buy a gift that is functional, it's just a way to say I love you. Christmas is a symbol of union and joy, Christmas is forgetting yourself and finding time for others."

Where the Red Fern Grows

He was born in an obscure village, the son of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village, where he worked in a carpenter's shop until he was thirty. Then for three years he became a wandering preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a house. He didn't go to college. He never visited a big city. He never travelled two hundred miles from the place where he was born. He did none of those things one usually associates with greatness. He had no credentials but himself. He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies and went through a mockery of a trial. He was executed by the state. While he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing, the only property he had on earth. When he was dead he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Twenty centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and the leader of mankind's progress. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that

One Solitary Life.
