President's Message

Brothers and Sisters,

THANK YOU! Last month my opening two words were "Happy Anniversary." This month my opening two words are "Thank you." Our 50th Anniversary Gala Dinner Dance was nothing short of a blockbuster Brumidi event. As guests entered our newly redecorated hall, their eyes were drawn to the movie screen showing an anniversary slide show that ran throughout the entire evening. As they approached their assigned gold linen decorated table, waiting for them was our Commemorative Anniversary Journal, a program, and a souvenir Constantino Brumidi chocolate. The food was second to none. Brumidi Catering's cocktail hour consisted of four impressive stations including an impressive vegetable/fruit and cheese station with all the extras, a mashed white and sweet potato station with all the trimmings, a Waldorf and Caesar salad station, and a carving station with pork loin and turkey with the toppings. Catering staff went from table to table personally serving hors d'oeuvres: coconut shrimp, chicken lemongrass satay, apricot in phyllo, and pigs in the field (delicious pretzel dogs displayed on a small field of grass). During the program, one dedicated Brumidi staffer went around and presented each guest with a commemorative Constantino Brumidi 50th Anniversary Challenge Coin. After the program and presentations, guests were served stuffed shells with pesto Alfredo, something deviating from the norm, but delicious. As the Long Island Swing Band went into full action, so did the catering staff. Under the focused supervision of Daniel Calise, guests were served their main course; a perfectly cooked Filet Mignon with demi glaze, fresh asparagus, roasted baby carrots, and roasted fingerling potatoes. To supplement this impressive dinner, each table had a bottle of red and white wine with Brumidi's 50th Anniversary label. The Long Island Swing Band took guests through several decades of music and were happy to play any requests. The evening was topped off perfectly with Brumidi Catering's Viennese Hour. As sparkling tables were rolled out onto the dance floor, guests had a hard choice between all the pastries, fruit, ice cream station and coffee station with cordials. This gala evening was a result of the months of dedicated work of the anniversary committee and the unbelievable drive, dedication, and labor of Daniel, Tara, Emily and the Brumidi Catering staff who ensured that our lodge would shine during and after this historic time in our lodge's history. For that, I can't thank all of you enough.

In conjunction with our Gala, The Town of Babylon dedicated Stevenson Place as "Constantino Brumidi Way." The sign unveiling and presentation ceremonies took place on the same day. An extra sign was presented to the lodge members and it will be proudly mounted in our forthcoming fraternal room on the upper level. The lodge also purchased a 12" x 12" commemorative brick in honor of our 50th year that will be installed at the Garibaldi-Meucci Museum on Staten Island sometime this year.

Mother's Day is right around the corner and I wish all the mothers and grandmothers of our lodge a very happy, healthy and blessed Mother's Day with your loved ones. Let us not forget that a Mother is the heart of the home. Mother's Day also means that spring has arrived, I am sure we are all very busy with preparing the grounds around our homes for the warmer weather, especially our flower and vegetable gardens. Please keep in mind that we are constantly busy with events here at your lodge. May 21st is our annual Scholarship night. After an abbreviated meeting, we will be presenting well deserved students with our lodge scholarships. Saturday, May 25th is our 50's/60's/70's dinner dance. May 27th is the Annual Deer Park Memorial Day Parade. Please consider marching with us during our 50th year and show the community you are proud of your Italian Heritage. The lodge will have food after the parade. Our Field of Flags is available again this year. Together, let's make it more impressive that last year. May 28th is another Brumidi Movie night presenting Oscar and Hammerstein's enchanted musical, "The King & I" starring Deborah Kerr and Yul Brynner. The following weekend your convention delegates will be representing the lodge at the New York State Grand Lodge Annual Convention at the Villa Roma Resort and Conference Center in Callicoon, New York. The convention rolls us right into the month of June, a month for our fathers and grandfathers. Happy Father's Day to the men in our families that made impressions, gave guidance, love, and were there when we needed them most. I am sure that in addition to Father's Day, our lodge families will also be busy with confirmations, graduations, and many other family events in the month of June. Therefore, on June 29th, our lodge invites you all to take a breather from all the celebrations and relax at our Comedy night. It will be much needed stress reliever. Get your family and friends together and reserve a table as soon as possible to take advantage of a great night. Details of all the aforementioned events are in this issue of the LaVoce.

The lodge is continuing to sell 50th Anniversary Ceramic Mugs, lapel pins, and 50th Anniversary Challenge Coins in a display stand as souvenirs marking our 50th year of service to the community. Thank you to first Lady Susan for donating our lobby display cabinet and to the members that helped me fill it. As always, I welcome your advice and input, and thank you for your prayers.

God Bless and have a healthy and safe summer season with your family.

Fraternally,

Carminé

"There is among us a close relationship of this fraternal organization because we are bound together not only by a single interest but by love, friendship, and a common goal, fraternity. Nothing else matters, and nothing else will do."
