President's Message

My Brothers and Sisters,

Can someone explain to me where 2019 went? Is it hiding somewhere? Is it age or is time passing us quicker and quicker each year? This gives us all the more reason to enjoy each other's company and share fraternity as often as possible with our brothers and sisters in the lodge. Speaking of fraternity, our Culture and Heritage night was a huge success. I thank each and every one of you who participated and shared your traditions and heritage with our 30 new guests that evening. We are now in the process of following up with them and getting them to become members of our lodge. We also welcomed and installed two new members, Eugene & Joanne Blennau. We look forward to seeing them often at our lodge. A special thank you to Mama's Brick Oven Pizzeria, Pastosa Ravioli, Bono's Pizzeria, Brunello's Italian Kitchen, and Pizzaiola Restaurant for their delicious entrees that contributed to the success of that evening. Everyone also enjoyed the homemade Zeppoles. The batter was made by First Lady Susan and they were deep fried by Dan Cicale and Frank Montuori. Great job by all.

As always, October in our lodge was nonstop. Our annual fall fashion show turned out to be a huge success with our lovely ladies modeling beautiful furs, casual wear and evening wear. Thank you to Lucille Di Nardo and her committee for a job well done. I would like to personally thank all our members who participated in the Long Island Columbus Day parade in Huntington. We had a great turnout. We looked sharp in our uniforms. We received many compliments, Bob Savino read the opening prayer and Sabrina Savino proudly represented us on the bandstand as our lodge parade honoree. County Executive and member Steve Bellone made it a point to march with us in the parade. To top it off, the weather was perfect for marching in a parade. Once again our Halloween party was fun and enjoyed by all who attended. Scary costumes and detailed decorations made the night. Great job by Daniel Calise and committee.

This month is our Trim-A-Tree night on the 29th. This is a special day for me at our lodge because to me it marks the beginning of our celebration of the Christmas Season. We decorate and share food and eggnog that evening in preparation for our Senior Christmas Party, Officers Christmas Party, Breakfast with Santa, and the Lodge Members Christmas Party. This year, Brumidi Catering will be hosting a Christmas Brunch for the District 1 & 2 Presidents' Councils. This brunch is open to all who would like to attend. If you have not experienced a Brumidi Catering Brunch, now is the time to give it a try. You will not be disappointed. Remember, each year I tell you to keep a copy of the LaVoce close by to keep track of these wonderful events. Our New Year's Eve Gala will most likely be sold out soon, so make your reservations as soon as possible. As the year comes to a close, I want to thank you all for your contributions to our lodge. Now that our upper level is almost finished, please take the time to enjoy it and just relax as if it were a club lounge. It is there for you, the member. As always, a special thank you to Frank Montuori, Dan Cicale, Tom and Maureen Gentile and the kitchen crew for all your thankless hours of hard work during our events.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family. Enjoy your special traditional dinner with your loved ones and remember what you should be thankful for. Remember that Christmas is a day of meaning and traditions, a special day spent in the warm circle of family and friends. It is a time to do something a little extra for someone. It is also a necessity because there has to be at least one day during the year to remind us that we here for something else besides ourselves. Christmas is essentially a state of mind to cherish peace and good will to our brothers and sisters. It is a time to be with the ones we love. Below I share with you a quote from Ralph Kramden, Jackie Gleason, as he addresses his wife Alice, Audrey Meadows. It is from the finale of the Honeymooners episode "Twas the Night before Christmas" which first aired on December 24th, 1955. I believe this says it all. I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous and most healthy New Year.

Faternally,

Carmine

"Christmas is the best time of the whole year, you walk down the street and even weeks before Christmas comes there's lights hanging up, there's green ones and red ones, sometimes there's snow, everyone's hustling someplace. But they don't hustle around Christmas time like they usually do. You know they're a little more friendlier. They bump into you and they laugh and say "Pardon Me" and "Merry Christmas." Especially when it gets real close to Christmas night, everyone's walking home you can hardly hear a sound. Bells are ringing, kids are singing, snow is coming down and boy what a pleasure it is to think that you got someplace to go to, and the place you going to there's someone in it that you really love, someone you're nuts about.....Merry Christmas sweetheart."

FOOD

He was born in an obscure village, the son of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village, where he worked in a carpenter's shop until he was thirty. Then for three years he became a wandering preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a house. He didn't go to college. He never visited a big city. He never travelled two hundred miles from the place where he was born. He did none of those things one usually associates with greatness. He had no credentials but himself. He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies and went through a mockery of a trial. He was executed by the state. While he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing, the only property he had on earth. When he was dead he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Twenty centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and the leader of mankind's progress. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that One Solitary Life.
