President's Message

Brothers and Sisters,
I am in deep thought trying to decide how to compose my last message as your lodge president. I had no idea when I stepped up to take this position it was going to be for three years. I also had no idea that it would come to an end so quickly. I reflected on some of our accomplishments during my tenure in the last issue of the LaVoce. I hope you had a chance to read them. Although, I was not looking for it at the time, I really enjoyed being the lodge president to what I believe is one of the best lodges in our Country. That belief stems from all of you, the members, who work hard for their lodge and take great pride in their Italian heritage. We have gone through many trying times but have upheld the traditions of our lodge as best we could. You should all be proud and I thank you. To those of you who are staff, thank you for hanging in during these trying times. Thank you for your cooperation and dedication. As long as we remember the principles of our order, the future of our order will always be ours.

I would now like to take this opportunity to welcome and congratulate Sabrina Savino as our new Lodge President. I also would like to thank the officers for stepping up to their respective positions for the 2021 to 2022 fraternal year. Sabrina has broken the barrier as the First Female Lodge President in Brumidi Lodge history. This reminds me of a great quote from Eleanor Roosevelt, "A woman is like a teabag, you never know how strong she is until she gets in hot water." I believe she will preside over our lodge with no problem and I thank you all for supporting her and her new board of officers. "You can't go back and change the beginning, but can start where you are and change the ending." - C.S. Lewis -

Challenges continue for our lodge and our order as a result of issues in our Country. We must remain strong and dedicated to our cause. We must also keep out members who are sick and deceased in our daily prayers. Lastly, I congratulate Past President, Robert Savino as the "First Gentleman" of our lodge. He takes the pressure off us past Presidents for guidance and advice due to his front row seat with the new President.

For me, it is finally time to take a break. They say great is the art of beginning, but greater is the art of ending. Stay safe and Healthy and God Bless.

Faternally,

Carmine

"If you are brave enough to say goodbye, life will reward you with a new hello."

Brothers and Sisters of the Lodge,
It is with tremendous pride that I write my first Presidents Message. I'll begin by extending my sincere thanks and congratulations to Past President Carmine on his outstanding terms. His dedication is an inspiration to us all.

I follow in the steps of many great Brumidi Past Presidents and I am committed to uphold the fine legacy of what it means to be a member of the Order and a member of the Constantino Brumidi Lodge #2211.

My Italian heritage represents so much of who I am today and I enjoy sharing this common bond with you.

Thank you to the Incoming Officers, the Outgoing Officers and Chair people for stepping up and committing your time and efforts. I know it is not easy but please know that your efforts are appreciated. I reach out to all of the membership to share your stories of your heritage, for your participation, support and fundraising ideas. Please know that your input is invaluable and crucial to our beloved Lodge.

There is no doubt that we are experiencing difficult times, but I believe that better days are coming soon. Thank you to all who extended your words of support and congratulations.

I look forward to seeing you again when it is safe.

Wishing all a Happy and Blessed Easter, Sabrina

Poetry ... Poesia

Poets across the states celebrate National Poetry Month in April.

However, the jubilee, this year will begin in March, with Dante. Of the Italian Triumvirate of Dante, Petrarch and Boccaccio, known as the three crowns (tre corone) Dante Alighieri was also known as the Supreme Poet (il Sommo Poeta) among the greatest poets of Italian and world literature.

He was born in Florence in 1265, and died in exile in Ravenna in 1321. His tomb is still in Ravenna. It was during exile that Dante composed his greatest work, The Divine Comedy, a medieval literary bridge to the Renaissance era, his vision of the afterlife where references to myth, history and scripture serve to comment on the politics and political figures of his day. As a result of this body of work, Florentine Tuscan became the lingua franca, laying the foundation for the Italian language spoken today.

This year marks the 700th anniversary of the medieval poet and philosopher's death and the Italian government has announced the establishment of a National Dante Day, or Dantedì, to be observed annually on March 25. It was this date that scholars recognize as the beginning of Dante's journey into Hell, Purgatory and Paradise, the afterlife of the Divine Comedy.

"Dante reminds us of many things that hold us together: Dante is the unity of the country, Dante is the Italian language, Dante is the very idea of Italy", says Italian culture minister Dario Franceschini.

In a time when our Italian heritage is being challenged, it is a perfect time to allow poetic expression to fill your heart.

"Da una piccola scintilla può scoppiare una fiamma."

"From a little spark may burst a flame."

~ Dante Alighieri—Paradiso

COASTAL

It was strange to have hibernated since March when February was warm and innocent.

Outside I imagined it to be mid-June, photos and banners of graduates pasted on doors, posters on front lawns.

Everything was different.

I wasn't sure if Spring arrived or matured to Summer; or if it were Saturday.

And if it were would it matter.
