*Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Mass

President's Message

Brothers and Sisters of the Lodge,
I sincerely hope that this past Spring was been kind to you and your loved ones and now with summer upon us and COVID-19 NYS restrictions lifted, we begin anew.

Great news...the Columbus Day Parade in the Town of Huntington is back on again this year and will be held on Sunday, October 10. I'm hoping to have a strong presence from our Brumidi Lodge members as we proudly march in the Parade. More details to follow soon.

As you will see in this issue we are planning some fun events including a Decades Dinner Dance, Trivia Night, Chinese Auction, and many Dance nights. I ask that each of you engage in the Lodge whether that means making or seconding a Motion at the General Membership Meeting, joining a committee, trying your luck in a Raffle, volunteering to work an event, and/or attending an event. I also ask that you submit ideas to any member of the Board for improvements and fundraising, ask how you can assist, solicit new members and reach out to your ailing Brothers & Sisters. With our reopening plan in effect we are in need of volunteers for various events (servers, kitchen prep, ticket sales, etc.). Please contact Daniel Calise or myself to volunteer. You will be trained and will most likely enjoy the experience. Please know that your support, participation and input is invaluable and crucial to the success of our beloved Lodge. On Sunday, July 25 we will honor the members we lost over the last year at a memorial mass at 12:30 pm at Sts. Cyril & Methodius Church.

At the mass we will also pay tribute to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel with a procession.

Also, I encourage you to share stories of our shared heritage; contact Bob Savino to schedule a 2-3 minute spot at a General Membership Meeting.

Wishing you a Blessed Summer,

Sabrina

Michelangelo's Secret Room

Nobody knew about it for hundreds of years. Then, in 1975, under the Medici Chapels in the Basilica of San Lorenzo in Florence, a tiny room was discovered. It is thought that this room was Michelangelo's secret hiding place for a few months in 1530, to avoid being found by the Medici.

In this room, Michelangelo, armed only with charcoal and chalk, sketched figures from his past and future works: the head of Laocoon, various revisions of David, some images from the Sistine Chapel, and even a self-portrait.

This room remained unknown until 1975, when the then director of the Medici Chapels Museum, Paolo dal Poggetto, discovered it by chance. The walls had been plastered, but careful restoration work brought Michelangelo's charcoal drawings back to light. Why was Michelangelo hiding? The Medici Chapels, now a museum, were originally a mausoleum, the burial place for members of the Medici, starting from the second half of the 1400s. In 1519, Michelangelo was asked to erect the New Sacristy, which he worked on for about 10 years; it would become one of his greatest architectural works. At the time, Michelangelo was therefore a protégé of the noble family, but when a popular uprising broke out to oust them, the artist sided against the Medici. However, the powerful family soon returned to power, and Michelangelo had to flee.

He did not go very far though; having worked on it for a long time, he knew well the Medici Chapels and the San Lorenzo complex, and that's where he found refuge, in a long and narrow basement under the very same sacristy he had built; what is now known as 'Michelangelo's secret room.'
