President's Message

Brothers and Sisters of the Lodge,

Brothers and Sisters of the Lodge,

We have had many challenges over the last two months, actually, the last two years, but I truly believe that better days are here. Despite these most recent challenges we had a lovely Valentines Dinner Dance and many weekly dances. We have several exciting and diverse events coming up that you will read about in this issue of your newsletter. To name a few: a Comedy Show with Long Island's top comics, Breakfast with the Easter Bunny, Tribute Bands for the Rolling Stones and another band with the best music of the 80's, a Saints Day Social, a Psychic Medium Night with renowned Psychic Josephine Ghiringhelli and last but certainly not least, the well deserved Testimonial Dinner Dance for IPP Carmine E. Soldano. I cannot emphasize enough the need for you to get engaged in our Lodge...your Lodge. This can be accomplished in so many ways whether it is by attending events, volunteering for events, posting one of our flyers in a local establishment (with their permission), sharing the posts that are on our FaceBook page, and sharing our events with your family and friends, just to name a few.

We are always looking for new fundraising ideas to promote our Italian American culture, sustain our building and support the community.

Please consider volunteering and/or attending and making some lasting memories.

Thank you to all who submitted their 2022 Membership dues; I look forward to all the significant events we will hold and accomplishments we will achieve in the coming year while demonstrating our fraternity. For those who have not yet submitted their dues, your membership is in arrears and according to our bylaws, you will be dropped shortly. I truly hope that you will consider renewing your membership today. Congratulations to Sister Michelina Battista who has been a member of Brumidi for 50 Years! We celebrated her devotion at the February Membership Meeting with a Certificate of Appreciation, well deserved accolades, and a gift.

Also, in the spirit of fraternity, please consider reaching out to your fellow brothers and sisters who are ailing. Your call could easily brighten their day.

Finally, I extend my sincere gratitude to those who volunteer tirelessly day after day; your efforts are noted, needed and greatly appreciated!

Fraternally,
Sabrina

Italian-American Culture & Heritage

All members are invited to plot your region on the Brumidi map of Italy. Tell us a story from the roots of your family tree.

Forty Days to Easter in Italy

Known as Quaresima, or the 40th day, in Italian, Lent is the word Catholics use to describe the fast before Easter. Forty is a significant number in the Bible, including, Moses on the mountain for 40 days, rain for 40 days and nights in the story of Noah's Ark, and 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness praying and fasting. The intention is to abstain from certain things, especially on Fridays, as penance for our sins, and to reflect on Jesus' resurrection.

Today, many Catholics - including many Italians - still make sacrifices. The most well-known is refraining from eating meat on Ash Wednesday and every Friday until Easter.

Additionally, most Catholics choose to either do a good deed (volunteering at a hospital, donating food and supplies to the poor, etc.) or to give up something they love (chocolate, watching television) during Lent. The intention is to make a sacrifice like the one Jesus made for us.

When Holy Week arrives, churches tend to fill more than usual on Palm Sunday, bottles of holy water are usually blessed and offered to Mass attendants, and processions (often outdoors) include the Stations of the Cross.

As Easter approaches, Italians traditionalists prepare for a big feast. Many of them collect red onion skins that they use to dye Easter eggs. Hardly anyone uses store-bought dyes, which they consider to be poisonous. Children wake to chocolate eggs. The bakers begin to soak wheat for pastiera or wheat pie, which is a typical Neapolitan dessert.

One of the most enjoyable occasions in Italy is the Easter celebration. Pasqua is an important tradition in Italy. The holiday symbolizes the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ in the Christian. Historically, Easter holiday was marked on every Sunday after the first full moon in spring equinox.

Each Italian town holds its own colorful procession on the Easter Sunday with thousands of performances depicting the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ. Statues of Jesus and Virgin Mary are paraded throughout the city while jovial participants dressed in ancient forms of clothing carry olive branches singing religious songs.

Most importantly, Easter is a confirmation of our faith.
